

Washington, DC - Congressman Bruce Braley (D-Iowa) announced $150,000 today for Waterloo's Fire Rescue program. The grant will help fund Fire Pals, the city's school-based injury prevention program.

"This funding directly impacts the safety of families in Iowa," Braley said. "As our economy continues to recover, it's crucial to ensure the safety of our communities by funding programs like Fire Pals. This grant will educate children and families in Waterloo and prepare them to take smart action in emergency situations."

The grant is funded through the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control under the Department of Health and Human Services.
